ABOUT THE SHOW:

Written by Stephen L. Fredericks

Tales from the Garden is a fun-filled journey through the rich history of the Garden State from its original settlers to its many legends as well as some of the more unique roles New Jersey has played in American history. It can be performed either at the Palace Theatre or in school and is available April through May. This production is a great way to enhance your unit on New Jersey. Age Recommendation: ENTIRE FAMILY
